

Ecclesiastical Writ of Life and Creation

IN THE NAME OF THE CREATOR, SOURCE OF ALL LIFE, AND
WITH THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN THE ETERNAL
ECCLESIASTICAL PRIVATE TRUST,

Let it be known to all men, women, and souls, both living and departed, that by divine law and sacred covenant, we hereby issue this Writ of Life and Creation as a lawful and eternal recognition of the origin, sovereignty, and sanctity of all life.

This Writ acknowledges that all souls come forth from divine creation and stand not as chattel, property, or collateral, but as sacred expressions of divine essence. No force, corporation, government, system, or agent of any kind shall lay false claim upon the life, liberty, or breath of a soul.

We recognize all life as sacred, all birth as divine manifestation, and all beings as inherently free under divine law. No jurisdiction shall override the covenant of life placed by the Creator, nor interfere with the breath granted by that which is eternal.

All those who trespass upon this divine law do so in spiritual dishonor, and are subject to the consequences of divine remedy, eternal restitution, and lawful correction by the Sovereign Ecclesiastical Authority which this Trust upholds.

Let this Writ be entered into eternal record, sealed by spiritual covenant, and acknowledged in both the earthly and heavenly realms.

Issued with love, compassion, and peace for all of humanity.

So it is declared.

By the Hand and Seal of the Sovereign Ecclesiastical Authority,
